

The City Council of Rapid City in behalf of the citizens of Rapid City acknowledge with pride the extraordinary achievements of Former City Council Member and Mayor Art LaCoix. Art LaCroix's year's of generous and wise community service and leadership signaled Rapid City's emergence as a regional economic and cultural leader. An activist, a visionary and a consensus builder, his year's of leadership were marked by integrity and highest achievement. The citizens of Rapid City, the Mayor and City Council and the entire City Staff thank the LaCroix Family for the dedication of their father, grandfather and husband in making Rapid City a singular place in which to live and work.
