

buildings, walls, fences, hedges, trees are shown. These easements grant to all public authorities the right to construct, operate, maintain, inspect and repair such improvements and structures as it deems expedient to facilitate drainage from any source.

