Dear Adam:

This letter serves as notification that the local Black Hills Society for Human Resource Management (BHSHRM) in conjunction with the South Dakota Society for Human Resources Management (SDSHRM) will be selling tickets from the date of approval until Friday, June 6, 2003. The drawing will conclude the selling of such tickets.

The raffle will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. at the Ramkota convention Center, 2111 N LaCrosse Street, Rapid City, SD 57701. The drawing shall be conducted by the President of the SDSHRM, Al Ruhlman.

The BHSHRM is a local not-for-profit organization and will be raffling a six-foot stuffed animal named "Curious George" as a means of raising fund to go the SHRM Foundation, a 501c(3) non-profit organization. The Foundation funds research, publications and a wide range of education incentives to advance the profession and enhance the effectiveness of Human Resource professionals. The tickets are being sold at a rate of $25.00 for one foot of tickets.

If you have any questions regarding this issue, please feel free to contact me at (605) 343-0865.

Sincerely,

Cathy Druckrey
