Library Service Issues/Needs you perceive:

To continue to make sure the public is aware of all services available. To continue to research the new technologies for library services to see if it is feasible for our facilities

Goals for yourself as a RCPL Library Trustee:

Use my expertise in public relations, and management to achieve the issues and needs listed above.
To make the Rapid City Library the type of facility that serves our area, while making wise decision in the use of the monies available.
