

April 19, 2004

To Whom It May Concern:

I, William deLorimier, attorney in fact for Lenore B. deLorimier, owner of the property in question, and later described more fully, do hereby declare, to wit: No person or organization has been granted the right to use, trespass or otherwise occupy the land for any purpose whatsoever, save for utilities easements and save for Wyss Associates, Inc., acting on behalf of WEB Land Holdings, LLC, as regards the sale of the property to WEB Land Holdings, LLC. Furthermore, and specifically, this denial of the right to use, trespass or otherwise occupy the demised land is meant to apply to any right or claim by any person, persons or organization with regard to that person, persons or organization using the land for religious or holy purposes.

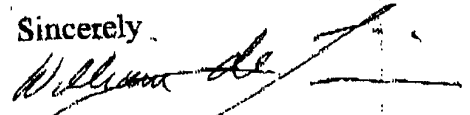

If any person, persons or organization has been using the land for any purpose, this is notification that their use has been without knowledge or approval of Lenore B. deLorimier, has been illegal trespass and that person, persons or organization is/are ordered to cease and desist from their or its use of the land.

The land under the above notice is all the land owned by Lenore B. deLorimier in Section 11, T1N, R7E, BHM, Rapid City, Pennington County, SD. It is described more fully in "AGENDA, City of Rapid City Planning Commission, April 8, 2004...: Hearing Items Consent Calendar—" and contained under the headings, as follows:
