The Sports Facility Partnership Fund was established in 2004 to provide grant funding to be used for capital improvements to city-owned facilities which are leased to non-profit organizations. In 2009 we have $43,056 available in the Fund to provide grant funding for upgrades to Rapid City's sports facilities.

Lon Van Deusen,
Parks & Cemetery
Manager

The following requests for 2009 funding were received:

- ASA Softball, Parkview Softball Complex, Shade Structure
- ASA Softball, Parkview Softball Complex, Retaining Wall
- Church Softball League, Whitehead Softball Complex, Outfield Fence Replacement

Doug Lowe,
Recreation Manager
(605) 394-6161

Parks & Recreation Department Staff has reviewed the applications and recommends approval of all three projects. At the meeting on June 11, 2009 the Advisory Board passed a motion to recommend that the following projects be approved for funding from the 2009 Sports Facility Partnership Fund:

Duncan Olney
Aquatics Manager
