Mayor Sam Kooiker

New “Business” Link Added to City Website

A new link has been added to the City of Rapid City’s website that appears on the top link bar of all City web pages and on the left sidebar of some sections. The link is called “Business” and it redirects the user to a page titled “Guide to Doing Business in Rapid City.” The page can be accessed directly at <http://www.rcgov.org/business.html>.

This new page is the outcome of a coordinated effort between Rapid City Area Economic Development and the City’s Information Technology Department to provide more organized economic development and business information for existing and potential businesses.

Categories on the page include Economic Development, Permits, Community Planning, Development, Licensing, the Chamber of Commerce, and GIS Maps.

Please contact the Mayor’s Office at 394-4110 with any questions about the new web page or suggestions for additional links to be included.
