

Democracy in Action

Women Working for a Better World

Rapid City Common Council

Submitted by Democracy in Action on August 5, 2013

Authors: Lynn Barber, Dorothy Brewick, Angela Giffin, Karen Miller

A Resolution in Support of the Native American Sculpture Garden

WHEREAS: The First Nations Sculpture Garden Corporation has proposed a sculpture garden featuring Native American heroic scholars in Halley Park, Rapid City, SD;

WHEREAS: Halley Park is a location of historical significance to the Native peoples of this area;

WHEREAS: The public art in Rapid City increases the quality of life, cultural awareness, and richness of this great city;

WHEREAS: Rapid City municipal authorities have the ability to address concerns for relevant safety issues;

AND

WHEREAS: Rapid City has an opportunity to be a leader in recognizing Native heroes in the United States;

THEREFORE: We, Democracy in Action, support the First Nations Sculpture Garden Corporation and urge the Rapid City Common Council to approve their project in a timely manner.