Please list the specific committee(s) for which you are applying: Rapid City Planning Commission

Work and/or business experience related to the committee(s): While at SDSU, I served as the Student Government President, and participated in various committees in the city of Brookings, SD. While being a lobbyist on behalf of SD Higher Education, we learned the great importance of economic impact and recruiting effective businesses into our state. I currently run a non-profit which has provided me with more skills and knowledge with business.

Education, license, certification, & experience: B.S. in Agricultural Education.

I worked abroad as an agriculturalist and teacher in China and Belize.

Community involvement, activities, service organizations: Dakota Choral Union, Pennington County Search and Rescue Team, Project Church member, Rapid City Young Professionals

Additional information/qualifications relevant for the committee or committees to which you are applying: I feel I have a great understanding of how development works, and would be able to contribute well to the team with thoughts and feedback. I am well connected with the School of Mines students and know that there are big needs for job opportunities to keep them in SD in which I would love to explore.

Do you reside within a 3 mile jurisdiction of Rapid City? : Yes
