

United States Department of the Interior
National Park Service

National Register of Historic Places Continuation Sheet

Section number 7 Page 22

* #51

Address	Historic Name	Common Name	Year	NR Status
802 St. Joseph Street	Rapid City Business College		1919	Contributing

Description: Art Deco; yellow brick (running bond), concrete; 3 stories; rectangular plan; flat roof: tar and gravel; south (main) facade, first elevation - stores extend out from main building, a central entrance with a mission parapet flank by large display windows, square brick columns with concrete capitals separate the bays; an entrance to the main building is on the west end of this facade. South facade, second and third elevations - four symmetrical bays each, filled in with glass block and two 1/1 double hung windows. Pilasters are on either side of the bay. The east facade only has two bays on the upper elevation and the first elevation has a stores like the south facade with 7 bays. A decorative cornice of simple art deco influence.

Legal Description: E 14'2 1/4" of S78'4" of Lot 28 & E21' 13 1/4" of the N61'8" of Lot 28 & All of Lot 29 & S75' of 30-32 of Block 82 of the Original Town of Rapid City

* #52

Address	Historic Name	Common Name	Year	NR Status
808 St. Joseph Street	Lakota Lodge		1951	Non-Contributing

Description: International; brick (running bond); 3 stories; irregular plan; flat roof: tar and gravel, the building is set back to the back corners of the two adjacent buildings with a green space in extending to the sidewalk; south (main) facade - a rectangular projection with glass block wrap around on the southeast corner of all three elevations. The west end of the facade has one bay on each elevation with couple 1/1 double hung windows. the east end of the facade 1/1 windows and glass block wrapper around to the east facade. The east facade has 6 bays on each elevation with "Lakota Lodge" "Tourists - Commercial" painted on top elevations.

Legal Description: included with parcel 802 St. Joseph