

In this photograph, the COD grocery store was located on the Seventh Street side of the Buell Building. This facade of the Buell Building is a highly ornate Victorian-era Italianate with a heavy decorative cornice and parapet supporting finials and an arched pediment. Upper level windows contain stained and prismatic glass in the spaces below the decorative window hoods. A typical large storefront appears at the street level.