

United States Department of the Interior
National Park Service

National Register of Historic Places Continuation Sheet

Section number 7 Page 21

* #48

Address	Historic Name	Common Name	Year	NR Status
725 St. Joseph Street			1918	Contributing

Description: Utilitarian; brick (running bond), concrete, stucco; 2 stories; rectangular plan; flat roof: tar and gravel; first elevation - large plate glass windows, recessed entrance and transoms with glass block, decorative belt course above transom; second elevation two bays, coupled 1/1 double hung windows, concrete belt course above window, simple decorative crest.

Legal Description: Lot 11 of Block 93 of Original Town of Rapid City

* #49

Address	Historic Name	Common Name	Year	NR Status
731 St. Joseph Street	Federal Building	Rushmore Professional Building	1912	Contributing

Description: Classical Revival; stone, granite, concrete; 2 stories; rectangular plan; flat roof: tar and gravel; north facade, five arched 1 1/2 story bays, and concrete belt then 5 small bays with couple casement windows.
** see narrative description

Legal Description: Lots 12-16 of Block 93 Original Town of Rapid City

* #50

Address	Historic Name	Common Name	Year	NR Status
801 St. Joseph Street	Art Rose Building	Staple & Spice Market	1930	Contributing

Description: Utilitarian; brick (running bond); 2 stories; rectangular plan; flat roof: tar and gravel; east facade - two storefront on south end with plate glass and recessed entrances, a gothic arch and concrete archivolt molding, and another storefront that wraps around the northeast corner. The second elevation of the east facade has 13 bays that are single pane metal frame windows and concrete belt course extends over the tops of the windows. The north facade has a store front and 5 bays on the second elevation with single pane metal windows; louvered bay centered top; a simple decorative crest with a concrete cap extends along the roofline.

Legal Description: Lots 1-2 and Tract B of Lot 3 of Block 92 of the Original Town of Rapid City