

Minutes
Historic Sign Review Committee
January 22, 2010

MEMBERS PRESENT: Kyle Blada, Pat Roseland, Lee Geiger

STAFF PRESENT: Karen Bulman

OTHERS PRESENT: Miranda Bradsky, Brooke Bradsky, Lesley Rutter

Blada called the meeting to order at 8:32 am.

610 St. Joseph Street – AJ's Wicked Salon and Spa – Awning, Pedestrian and Window Signs

M. Bradsky described the awning, pedestrian and window signs proposed for the property. M. Bradsky explained that the pedestrian sign material will be a canvas fabric in a frame that is attached to the building. Discussion followed on the location of the pedestrian sign. Geiger stated that the pedestrian sign should be located on the column of the building and centered over the logo. M. Bradsky further described the window signs. Geiger moved, Roseland seconded and passed unanimously to approve the awning, pedestrian, and window signs for AJ's Wicked Salon and Spa at 610 St. Joseph Street with the stipulation that the pedestrian sign be located on the brick column and centered directly above the awning logo.

832 St. Joseph Street – All Continents Travel – Copy Change for Awning Sign

Rutter described the copy changes proposed for the awning sign. Roseland moved and Geiger seconded to approve the awning sign for All Continents Travel at 832 St Joseph Street. Rutter clarified that the materials used in the awning sign are sewn on the awning fabric. The motion to approve the awning sign for All Continents Travel at 832 St Joseph Street passed unanimously.

Minutes

Blada requested that the minutes of the January 8, 2010 Historic Sign Review Committee meeting be continued to the February 12, 2010 meeting to allow members to review the minutes.

Sign Ordinance Review

Blada continued the proposed Sign Ordinance discussion to the next Historic Sign Review Committee meeting.

Blada adjourned the meeting 8:48 am.
