CERTIFICATE TO TAXPAYER

The above contains a correct copy of your mobile home assessment and tax. This tax is payable to the County Treasurer. The first half tax becomes delinquent if the tax is NOT paid on or before April 30th, or the second half is NOT paid on or before October 31st of the year the mobile home was registered. If the mobile home is registered after April 30th, the tax becomes delinquent if not paid by October 31st. Delinquent taxes are subject to a 10% per year penalty. The penalty shall be added on the first day of the month and each month thereafter until paid. The penalty shall attach and be a charge upon the taxes. If the tax becomes delinquent the County Treasurer is required to file notice as required by law and 45 days thereafter issue a distress warrant to the Sheriff. If you are aggrieved by this assessment you may appeal to your local Board of Equalization. If you do not receive satisfaction you may appeal to the County Board of Equalization and then the State Office of Hearing Examiners (SDCL 10-9-15). Pending such appeal(s) these taxes must be paid under protest.
