Qty	Item	Description
1	Labor	Labor for programming including 1 person from KT Connections on site and follow up This quote includes Labor for Control Works and KT Connections to enhance the new microphones. This will give each user ability to turn mics on and off. The control panel operated by the chair will only control the next to speak button just as it does now, but the controller only operates the camera position, but not the mics. They will individually be turned on and off by user. The podium will have second mic located on side of lectern installed for person speaking while operating visual equipment.
