To Whom It May Concern:

As a downtown business, we are always looking for ways to attract more business to our district. We feel the weekend Artist Promenade & Farmer's Market on 7th Street is an innovative concept. The family-orientated films after dusk is also a creative way to bring more families to our downtown area. I feel if the businesses directly affected on 7th Street are behind this venture, then it is worth serious consideration.

Sincerely,
