RECOMMENDATION: Staff recommends that the resolution changing the road named East 39th Street and Racetrack Road to Jolly Lane be approved.

GENERAL COMMENTS: This proposed resolution will change the official road name of East 39th Street and Racetrack Road to "Jolly Lane." The portion of roadway to be renamed is that which lies north of East Highway 44. The portion of roadway which aligns with this segment and lies to the south of East Highway 44 is already named "Jolly Lane." There are approximately forty-five property owners who will be affected by this renaming. Although the roadway is located outside of the City limits it is located within the three-mile platting jurisdiction and its renaming requires approval of both Pennington County and the City of Rapid City. On December 5, 2000 the Pennington County Commission approved a resolution to rename the roadway to "Jolly Lane." As part of the County renaming process, all affected property owners were notified. Once the City has concurred in the renaming of the roadway, the Pennington County Highway Department will change all affected street name signs.

STAFF REVIEW: The purpose of renaming the roadway to "Jolly Lane" is to eliminate the long-standing confusion caused by multiple street names for this same roadway. Confusion regarding street names can cause problems ranging from minor issues such as interruptions
