

Regarding property donated or sold to the city: The city council shall vote to accept the property before the deed can be transferred.

Regarding the city giving away or selling property: Ownership shall be transferred within 60 days of the decision to transfer unless an extension is granted. Extensions would be no more than 60 days. Multiple extensions would be possible, but this means it would be subject to the scrutiny of a vote every 60 days.