

CITIZEN INTEREST APPLICATION
Vision 2012 Program

Rapid City Ordinance 3988 establishes three committees – each comprised of 9 citizens who must be city residents to hold at least two public hearings to take public comment on how the next round of 2012 funds should be expended. Committee selection shall be based on background, experience and community involvement. The committees will make recommendations to the full City Council within its category for the next five year plan. The Council shall accept, amend or reject the recommendations made by any of the three committees.
