FEMA Reimbursement

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) notified the State of South Dakota of the City's first in a series of Federal grant reimbursements for Winter Storm Atlas. Due to the proactive efforts of all departments, the City qualifies for the alternative procedures of the Public Assistance Program for debris removal costs. Under this program all debris removal costs incurred within the first thirty days are eligible for federal reimbursement at 85%. The City will receive $1,350,841 from FEMA and $158,922 from the State of South Dakota for its initial reimbursement request of $1,589,224.
